

Financial, Fintech & Digital Forum

warmly invites you to a Cocktail & Dinner Debate on “Financial Technology, a game changer for the financial industry, consumers and regulators”

10th July, Paris, 1900h to 2200h
at Maison de l'Amérique Latine
217 Boulevard Saint-Germain

Kindly chaired by Mr José Maria Roldan, Chairman and CEO of the Spanish Banking Association and Vice President of the European Banking Federation.

Previously Mr Roldan was Director-General for Banking Regulation and Financial Stability at the Bank of Spain and member of its Executive Board. He was the Chairman of the Committee of European Banking Supervisors, the forerunner of the European Banking Authority.

Mr Martin Moloney, Special Advisor on Regulatory Policy at the Central Bank of Ireland, will deliver some introductory remarks.

The order for the evening will be:

- ❖ 19:00: Welcome drinks reception
- ❖ 19:30: Chairman's welcome address and opening remarks
- ❖ 20:15: Moderated discussion and Q&A
- ❖ 21:45: Closing remarks
- ❖ 22:15: End of event

Dinner guests will be invited to discuss and share views on:

- ❖ Where will financial technology will be the most disruptive in the next two years?
- ❖ What are the implications for clients, consumers and financial stability?
- ❖ Which should be the focus areas for policy makers and for supervisors?

Financial, Fintech & Digital Forum primary objectives:

- ❖ establish a permanent high-level discussion forum, thinking ahead on how to improve the effectiveness of the financial markets, Fintech and digital regulation;
- ❖ further facilitate the dialogue between regulators, policy makers and stakeholders, on financial, fintech and digital issues in a medium and long-term perspective.
- ❖ strengthen the voice of all stakeholders in the debate on the future of the financial, fintech and digital regulation at European and international level;
- ❖ develop positions on key themes on the future of the Capital and Digital Markets Union.
